Architectural Record's annual competition for best new products of the year attracted more than 250 entries. Our independent jury of designers selected 57 innovative winners, of which the Best in Category received the top numerical rankings. In addition, RECORD editors scrutinized the winners through the lens of their own reporting and highlighted other favorites. Click through the links below to find the latest, and best, building products.

ASA-D2

Cosentino partnered with architect Daniel Germani on this contemporary freestanding outdoor kitchen. ASA-D2 features Dekton by Cosentino countertops, Brown Jordan Outdoor Kitchens stainless-steel cabinetry, and a grill by Caliber Appliances. A modular design allows access to storage on both sides of the unit. Finishes include an aged and oxidized steel, solid-black Calacatta-marble replica, and high-gloss white.
